

Peter Constantinou
President & CEO
Association Matters, Inc.

A specialist in organizational management, Peter works with client Boards as an active participant in the leadership team. His sought-after advice and guidance promotes association leaders to set their vision, achieve their potential and engage members in their ecosystem.

An association management professional for over 18 years, Peter uses his contagious enthusiasm to create a renewed sense of purpose and a rejuvenated work spirit for our clients and the AMI Team.

Peter holds a Masters in Business Administration from New York Institute of Technology. He successfully completed the Organizational Management program from Dale Carnegie in 1984 and the world-renown Customer Service training program offered by the Walt Disney World Company in 1989.